

As I Roved Out

Am G
And who are you, me pretty fair maid

Am G
And who are you, me honey?

Am G
And who are you, me pretty fair maid

Am G
And who are you, me honey?

Am Am
She answered me quite modestly,

G Em
"I am me mother's darling."

Chorus

Am G
With me too-ry-ay Fol-de-diddle-day
Em Am Am Am
Di-ry fol-de-diddle Dai-rie oh.

And will you come to me mother's house,
When the sun is shining clearly
And will you come to me mother's house,
When the sun is shining clearly
I'll open the door and I'll let you in
And divil the one will hear us.

Chorus

So I went to her house in the middle of the night
When the moon was shining clearly
So I went to her house in the middle of the night
When the moon was shining clearly
Shc opened the door and she let me in
And divil the one did hear us.

Chorus

She took me horse by the bridle and the bit
And she led him to the stable
She took me horse by the bridle and the bit
And she led him to the stable

Saying "There's plenty of oats for a soldier's horse,
To eat it if he's able."

Chorus

Then she took me by the lily-white hand
And she led me to the table
Then she took me by the lily-white hand
And she led me to the table
Saying "There's plenty of wine for a soldier boy, Drink it if you're able."

Chorus

Then she got up and made the bed
And she made it nice and aisy
Then she got up and made the bed
And she made it nice and aisy
Then she got up and she laid me down
Saying "I hope to God you're able"

Chorus

And there we lay till the break of day
And divil the one did hear us
And there we lay till the break of day
And divil the one did hear us
Then I arose and put on me clothes
Saying "Darling, I must leave you."

Chorus

And when will you return again
And when will we get married
And when will you return again
And when will we get married
When broken shells make Christmas bells
We might well get married.

Chorus
