

Boys from the County Armagh

Intro – G / A A7 D D7 G /

 G / A A7
There's one fair county in Ireland
 D D7 G /
With memories so glorious and grand
 G / A A7
Where nature has lavished its bounty
 D D7 G /
It's the orchard of Erin's green land

 G / C A7
I love her cathedral and city
 D D7 G /
Once founded by Patrick so true
 G / A A7
And it bears in the heart of it's bosom
 D D7 G D
The ashes of Brian Boru

Chorus:

 G C G /
It's my own Irish home
 G E7 Am A7
Far across the foam
 D / / /
Although I've often left it
 G C G D
In foreign lands to roam
 G C G /
No matter where I wander
 G E7 Am Am7
Through cities near or far
 G / A A7
Sure, my heart's at home in old Ireland
 D D7 G /
In the County of Armagh

I've traveled that part of the county
Through New Town, Fork Hill, Crossmaglen
Around by the gap of Mountnorris
And home by Blackwater again
Where the girls are so gay and so hearty
None fairer in Erin Go Brágh
But where are the boys that can court them
Like the boys from the county Armagh?
CHORUS
